About This Game

BE THE FASTEST - BUT BE WARNED, ANYTHING IS PERMITTED! REDISCOVER THE CLASSIC CARD GAME AND GO!

Hop in your car and hit the road! The goal in this classic card game is simple: be the first to reach 1000 miles! Play with up to three friends on the same device, or test your driving skill against the AI! Who will be the best behind the wheel?

Draw cards and use them to jump miles ahead of your opponents. But you also have to be careful, because your friends may well not just let you drive in peace: flat tires, accidents or simply running out of gas are some of the complications you might encounter on your journey. But if you play your best Safeties – such as Driving Ace, Puncture-Proof or Emergency Vehicle – you might just end up being first... to reach 1000 miles.

Also, check out the Course mode to discover a new way to get the youngest players involved! Get set, go!

FEATURES:

- Up to 4 players: play in single-player mode against an AI, or challenge your friends in local multiplayer
  - Two game modes:
- Play in Classic mode to discover or rediscover the renowned card game in a vintage style. Try out the optional rules for more challenges as well!
- Discover the Course mode, which is based on the board game with its colorful design. Try out the different cards and use special powers to stay a car length ahead of your opponents!

- Over 20 achievements to unlock!
  - Play in portrait or landscape mode!
  - Languages available: English, French, Italian, German and Spanish

Incorrect. School of Rock - Jack Black. I do know Jack movies.. I killed Hitler AND the Illuminati for $0.98 cents!. The only reason I have this game is because my friend gifted it to me.. It's relatively short (~2 hours), but it has nice art and music which combine with the Japanese VA and Live2D to make for a pleasant read.

If you're looking for a light story (or fluffy ears and tails) I'd recommend it.. Disoriented is a really fun brain-teaser puzzle game offering 30 levels of various 3D mazes where you have to figure out the right path to reach the level exit door.

In order to do this, you have to interact with the maze by rotating some of its beams, using portals, switching between night and day which makes some beams appear/disappear.

You can use the Tab key to visualize the whole maze and plan your strategy to reach the exit.

You cannot jump, but you can drop to lower beams, and the originality of the game is that gravity works in the direction of where you stand, which makes it easy to lost track of where you are and want to go.

There is also the possibility to create a checkpoint by pressing the 'C' key which can save your current location before you attempt some change on the maze or in the case you would fail a drop for instance, but it was only really useful for me on the last levels.

I found the first 11 levels very easy, but after that, difficulty increases, and reaching the exit becomes trickier and trickier...
Still, when I finally succeeded in completing all levels, I had just wished there were more...

I did not encounter any of the bugs some people had, so I guess they all got fixed now, but I played with a keyboard/mouse.. never played it. This is worth 10 bucks, sure, but barely. There needs to be more games, honestly, if i went to an arcade this size in real life i'd be done in an hour, 5 bucks spent.. Akane has already become a easy go to game for me. Its a super easy game to try to grind out a couple wins in on a break or before work but also really easy to zen out in for longer periods of time. The moments when you feel like you are effortlessly transitioning between slashes, shots, dashes and adrenaline feel so crisp and cool.
Its the first thing to scratch my Hotline Miami itch in a while.. The first one in my opinion was better. But this is still a masterpiece . I would play this 24/7 but my mom sends me to school. Please kill her .

But seriously, this is the ultimate hide and seek game, with a bit of tense chasing/running and cute little swearing teddy bears thrown in the mix. Whats not to love?

Oh and People, do the tutorial AND look at the how to play part. You can't complain you didn't know how to play when you didn't learn willfully.

One noticable flaw in this game does seem to be wonky hitboxes. Sometimes you will brush a shadow and start turning, while other times a person can bump into something, lose all momentum, and yet me as shadow wriggling all over them doesn't start to infect them.. This game is an absolute work of art. Never have I so consistently had no idea what to expect level after level, or have been so excited to see what comes next. Highly recommended for any shooter fan.. Simple question to answer if you want this game or not

Do you enjoy making up words to make yourself seem smart to others?

Then this is the game for you!

Love it. Great game, 10/10.

Almost as good as Scattergories..

Now we finally have a game we can beat our Asian girlfriends at.. Why is my peepee hard

. Like a classic space shooter arcade ...

Pros:

- Nice Soundtrack (an awesome soundtrack).
- Great variety of enemies, stages, weapons ...
- Very addictive.

Cons:

The menu looks a little boring.

But it's ok, very enjoyable.

9 / 10. Japanese Culture Game

Soft Love Story. This game is absolutely beautiful. Would pop bubbles again. 10/10 tuna cans.. Very fun game
